ELIGIBILITY

We can accept applications from nonprofit /charitable organizations, unincorporated grassroots community groups, and community support services actively providing services in Halton and/or listed in the Halton Community Services Database at halton.cioc.ca.

BENEFITS

1. Promotion of volunteerism and development of volunteer capacity through:
 - ✓ Online posting of volunteer opportunities in Volunteer Halton Database halton.cioc.ca/volunteer
 - ✓ Volunteer referrals
 - ✓ Online advertising of your special events in need of volunteers, on Volunteer Halton's website www.volunteerhalton.ca and social media for additional coverage.
2. Free use of our Training Room for meetings and presentations; 30-person capacity (booking required)
3. Subscription to our mailing list providing members with information on important social and economic issues:
 - ✓ Community Dispatch, an InfoFacts on community issues
 - ✓ Community Lens, a bulletin with Halton specific community data
 - ✓ Events and upcoming training opportunities
4. Discounted rate on selected training opportunities, workshops, and seminars
5. New community associates receive one complimentary admission to one workshop of their choice ($45 value – one per organization/community service provider)
6. Free consultation on volunteer management issues
7. National Volunteer Week celebration

Only community associates in good standing may use the volunteer opportunities database and receive volunteer referrals.

If an agency wishes to apply for exemption to the service fee guidelines, please contact Rosemary Ann Coburn, Director, Volunteer Halton at acoburn@cdhalton.ca.
