TECH SOUP CANADA: Tech Soup is dedicated to empowering small charities, nonprofits, and libraries with the effective use of technology. Qualified charities, nonprofits, and libraries can order donated and discounted software for a very low administrative fee. Think software such as Microsoft Office, Quickbooks Premier, and Adobe Acrobat as well as ZOOM, DocuSign, and many more. Check them out at: www.techsoup.ca.

STAFF CHANGES AT CDH: Spring is changing into summer, and, like many of the charities and nonprofits we serve, Community Development Halton is tackling the operational impacts of the pandemic and change is underway at our organization.

Two of our senior staff members, Mike Nixon and Ted Hildebrandt, are now furthering their careers beyond CDH as are Corina Ciobanu, Communications Specialist and Research & Policy Analyst, Daniel Deering. We wish each of them every success with their new initiatives.

Our program contacts are: Heather Thompson, Director, Age-Friendly Initiatives and Heather Johnson, Director, Volunteer Halton. For inquiries about Social Planning, please contact chair@cdhalton.ca.

ZOOM - LIVE TRANSCRIPTION: Did you know that ZOOM now offers Live Transcription as part of its video conferencing services? This feature is enabled by the Host and is available for ZOOM Meetings and ZOOM Webinars. It's not perfect however it is a good tool to assist with the accessibility needs of meeting participants.
