ELIGIBILITY

We can accept applications from nonprofit /charitable organizations, unincorporated grassroots, and community support services actively providing services in Halton and Hamilton and registered in the Halton Community Services Database or Hamilton Public Library Red Book.

BENEFITS

1. Promotion of volunteerism and development of volunteer capacity through:
 - ✓ Online posting of volunteer opportunities in Volunteer Halton Database halton.cioc.ca/volunteer
 - ✓ Volunteer referrals
 - ✓ Online advertising of your special events in need of volunteers, on social media and on Volunteer Halton's website www.volunteerhalton.ca.
2. Free use of the Board Room (30-person capacity; booking required) up to 4 times per year. Additional Board Room booking is available at the rate of $100 per 4-hour time frame.
3. Subscription to our mailing list providing members with information on important social and economic issues:
 - ✓ Publications on community issues and Halton specific community data
 - ✓ Events and upcoming educational opportunities/workshops.
4. Discounted rate on selected training opportunities, workshops, and seminars
5. New community associates receive one complimentary admission to one workshop of their choice ($60 value – one per organization/community service provider)
6. Free 3-hour consultation on areas of CDH services: Volunteer Management, Social Planning and Age-Friendly Initiatives.

Only community associates in good standing may use the volunteer opportunities database and receive volunteer referrals.

If an agency wishes to apply for exemption to the fee guidelines, please contact Rosemary Ann Coburn, Director, Volunteer Halton at acoburn@cdhalton.ca.
