ELIGIBILITY

Community Development Halton (CDH) accepts applications from nonprofit organizations, grassroots groups, and community support services (firefighters, police, ambulance, transportation, regional & municipal government), actively providing services in Halton and Hamilton.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

ADVANTAGES

Volunteer Recruitment

Promotion of volunteerism and development of volunteer capacity.

Online posting of unlimited volunteer positions in our Halton Volunteer Opportunities Database halton.cioc.ca/volunteer.

Management and regular updating of your volunteer ads.

Volunteer referral service.

Organization Spotlight

Feature your organization/volunteer recruitment sessions on our website cdhalton.ca and volunteerhalton.ca for a greater exposure. Access additional promotion of your volunteer positions and attract more people to your volunteer opportunities and fundraising events. Let us tell your story in community!

Social Media and Promotion

Feature your volunteer opportunities, training, job postings, and other activities on social media. We are active on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and LinkedIn.

We will routinely provide you with important information about community development and civic engagement, to help increase the profile of your organization.

Education and Information

CDH plays a key role in research, data analysis and data sharing, as well as education programs, workshops, and resources designed specifically for your organization board, staff, and volunteers.

Subscription to our membership mailing list provides access to information on community trends, social, and economic issues through publications, reports, newsletters, and to upcoming events, seminars, training, and professional development. These include but are not limited to:

- Our Halton reports and Community Dialogue sessions
- VIEWPOINT Newsletter
- Community Conversations, CDH Educates workshop series & more!

Discounts

Reduced admission rates for members on all our educational opportunities, workshops, and seminars. One-time complimentary admission for new members to any of CDH's education sessions of their choice (one registration per organization).

ADVANTAGES

Consultation

Staff expertise and advice is given as needed up to three hours per year. Get the advice you need to help you build your programs in areas such as volunteer management, board governance, nonprofit management, and data and mapping.

Voting Privileges

1 vote in Annual General Meeting. Nominate candidates to the Board of Directors of Community Development Halton.

HIRE US!

We can help with data, feasibility studies, demographic analysis, and so much more.
