

CDH Educates Workshop Series 2022

Social Location and Systems of Oppression

Leading, Growing, and Creating Inclusive Volunteer Programs workshop series

In part one of this three part series you will learn about equity, diversity and inclusion concepts, including social location, systems of oppression. Unpack key terms and concepts including equity, inclusion, intersectionality, solidarity and liberation and how these relate to volunteers and volunteer programs.

RESCHEDULED
Wednesday
June 15, 2022
12:30 pm - 2:00 pm

Presenter:

Tanya Hannah Rumble, CFRE

Tanya Hannah Rumble, a nonprofit sector leader who has raised millions for some of Canada's largest charities including Heart and Stroke Foundation, the Canadian Cancer Society, McMaster University and now Ryerson University. Tanya is passionate about equity, diversity and inclusion; and power and privilege and how these intersect with philanthropy. She is deeply engaged in transforming the philanthropic sector as a leadership volunteer in the sector, intreprenuer in the organizations where she works and governs, as a writer and speaker in the fundraising sector, and as a mentor.

Registration at cdhalton.ca/events Please register by Monday June 13 @5:00pm.

Fee: CDH Members: $15; Non-Members: $25

Zoom virtual meeting link will be sent to the email provided in the registration, one day before the event. Any questions? Call 1 (855) 395-8807 ext. 2 or email hejohnson@cdhalton.ca